

Pain Education Sessions
Spring 2022 12:noon – 1:00pm

January 5 th	Ryan Zaklin	Cannabinoids for Pain: The Evidence and Practice*
January 19 th	Christine Ritchie	Chronic Pain in Community Dwelling Older Adults: what we know and don't know
January 20 th	Dawn Williamson, Nidhi Shelat Bridget Conly & Paul Arnstein	Replacing Stigmatizing with Nonjudgmental Language
February 2 nd	Karen Ryle	Painful Prescriptions: To Fill or not to Fill?*
February 16 th	Stephanie Kiser, Alexis Drutchas, & Sarah Byrne-Martelli	Caring for our Dying Patient's Total Pain*
February 17 th	Melissa Lantry	Pain Documentation Tricks for the Trade
March 2 nd	Minna Kohler, M.D.	Ultrasound Use for Inflammatory and Cancer-related Pain
March 16 th	Jeanne MacDonald Kate Davidoff & Brittany Kelly	Pain assessment and management in preverbal and non-verbal children.
March 17 th	Paul Arnstein	Which Pain Patients are a Pain to Care For?
April 6 th	Michael Schatman	Rebalancing Pain Medication Treatment Plans *
April 20 th	Joanne Borg-Stein	A Stepped Approach to Osteoarthritis Pain*
April 21 st	Alexis Drutchas	Palliative Care: More than Pain Control
May 4 th	Evan Gale	Treating Pain in the Patient with an Opioid Use Disorder*
May 18 th	Chris Gilligan	Restorative Neurostimulation for refractory, disabling chronic low back pain
June 1 st	Eve Kennedy-Spaen & Maggie Shen	Functional Restoration to treat Pain and Improve Function

* Nursing Pharmacology Credit available

** Nursing CE Credit available

*** No CE Credit available

Contact pmarnstein@mgh.harvard.edu for more information